

Alexandria Gazette.

THURSDAY EVENING, APRIL 14, 1904.

Local Matters.

WEATHER PROBABILITIES.—For this section cloudy tonight, probably rain or showers Friday partly cloudy and warmer; light north or east winds.

Released on Bail.

As was stated in the Gazette, Richard Burnett and Henry Wrenn—who were in charge of a wagon Tuesday night containing shoes and other articles which had been stolen from railway cars—were rearrested about noon yesterday by Officers Smith and Allen, additional evidence, it was alleged, having been obtained against the two men. Wrenn, it will be remembered, stated in the Police Court yesterday morning that he was on the way to the station house with the stolen goods when intercepted by the two officers named above, and that Burnett was accompanying him at his invitation; that Burnett knew nothing concerning the stolen goods, and that he (Wrenn) was acting in good faith in endeavoring to restore the property, in pursuance of a promise made to Officers Lyles and Arrington. Burnett protested his innocence as to the charge of complicity, and Justice Caton dismissed him. Wrenn, however, as well as the colored man Brown and his wife had their cases postponed. Wrenn was released on his own recognizance and the colored man and woman looked up. Later Officers Smith and Allen asked for a warrant for the rearrest of the two white men, it being asserted by these officers that additional evidence had been obtained against them. The clue to the whereabouts of the stolen goods was obtained through a colored woman named Rebecca Quill, who herself has often figured in the Police Court on charges of disorderly conduct, no imputation of her honesty having been made. She lives next door to Brown and his wife, and seeing a box in the yard of her neighbors with "A. Katz, Alexandria, Va." marked on it, together with fancy labels from soap, aproned officers of the fact. The latter discovered that some of the shoes from the box had been disposed of to Wrenn, and they accordingly visited his place. Wrenn admitted having purchased the goods, said he did so in good faith and promised the officers he would deliver all the goods at the station house at 9 o'clock Tuesday night by Officers Smith and Allen followed. Wrenn had a pistol in his pocket at the time. Burnett, after having been arrested three times in connection with the affair, was released late yesterday evening in $500 bail, his wife becoming his surety. Wrenn furnished no security and was locked up. The case will come up again tomorrow morning.

Personal.

Mrs. B. T. Cline is seriously ill at her home on North Fairfax street. The Alexandria Medical Association held their monthly meeting at the residence of Dr. Gibson on Tuesday night. Prof. H. W. Wiley, of the Agricultural Department, made an instructive and interesting address on the subject of pure food. The Royal Arcanum of this place gave a banquet Thursday night with a large attendance of members and visitors, among whom were Mr. H. K. Field and Mr. Robert Arnold, of Alexandria. [Warrenton Virginian.] A. M. Simpson, father of W. M. Simpson, chief-of-police of Staunton, celebrated his ninety-fourth birthday anniversary Sunday. He is probably the oldest Mason in Virginia. Mr. Simpson formerly lived in this city. Mr. F. J. Paff has announced his candidacy for the Mayoralty.

Wedding.

Miss Helen Josephine Harlow and Mr. Ross Tompkins Elliott were quietly married at the home of the bride's father, Mr. M. B. Harlow, at eight o'clock last night by the Rev. H. J. Cutler, of St. Mary's Church. Only the immediate relatives of the contracting parties were present. The wedding march was played by Mrs. R. F. Green. The contracting couple pledged their vows under a bower of flowers and ferns. The very attractive bride was becomingly gowned in gray veil and carried lilacs. A buffet supper followed, after which the couple left for an extended trip South. The residence of the bride was beautifully and tastefully decorated.

Danger Signals.

A dispatch to the Baltimore Sun from this city says: A new invention, that of Mr. George W. Petty, Chief Engineer of the Fire Department, designed to allow fire engines to speed through the streets without danger of collision with street cars or vehicles, will be put in operation here before this month closes. By this invention, as soon as the fire engine leaves its house signals are displayed at each of the nearest street crossings, and these signals succeed each other as the fire apparatus hurries on. The inventor is Mr. Geo. W. Petty, Jr., the nephew of Fire Chief Petty.

Bazar.

The bazar now in progress in the Young Men's Sodality Lyceum Hall for the benefit of the organ fund of St. Mary's Church continues to attract many visitors. The booth presided over by Mrs. Fleischmann is still admired by all. There was another good attendance last night and all present experienced a pleasant evening. The bazar will be continued till Monday night next when the voting contests will be all closed. There will be grand prize euchre party Tuesday night.

Police Court.

The only case before Justice Caton in the Police Court this morning was that of Capt. Vito Catalano, of the Italian bark Antonio D'Al, who was arrested yesterday by Officer Betts charged with selling liquor on Sunday and without a license. The accused was dismissed. The police report the city as having been quiet last night. The whistle-blowing, however, which has been the cause of much complaint, was again heard in the earliest hours. Justice Caton has directed officers to investigate the matter.

A fair will be given on Friday evening from 4 to 9 o'clock by the members of the Girl's Friendly Society of Christ Church in the Parish Hall. Useful and pretty articles made by the girls during the past year will be sold, also ice cream, cakes, caramels, etc.

The Fishery.

There was another lodge of sorrow on Fishburne this morning. The bleak winds were whistling around the rude structures, shippers and packers were hugging stoves and cutters were lined up against sheds, which in a measure broke the force of the cold, and glanced first at the clouds, from which it was hoped a cold would emerge, and then down the river in endeavors to destroy sails of fish boats. About 25,000 herring had arrived in twenty-four hours, while there was virtually no shade on the market. Herring were quoted at $4 per thousand. Shad are reported as very scarce, not only in the Potomac but in North Carolina rivers, and fishermen are beginning to realize that the catch this year will be a failure.

The New Railway Bridge.

Six cars loaded with parts of the new steel railway bridge over the Potomac were lying on a siding at Jackson City yesterday waiting to be unloaded. The floor beams of the new bridge are stretched from the shore pier at the Washington end to the first pier in the river and the bridge men are working on the overhead parts of the structure. Work is being hastened on the approaches to the new bridge at both ends and will be ready for use long before the steel work of the bridge is completed.

Opera House.

"Why Women Sin," which was presented at the Opera House last month, will be reproduced on Saturday night. The play was one of the finest ever witnessed in this city, and no doubt the reappearance of the company will be greeted by a large audience. The piece is clean, brisk and snappy, the comedy and pathos blending well together, while the climaxes are dramatic. There will be a matinee Saturday evening.

Shipyard Notes.

The tugboat Eugenia, belonging to Mr. L. E. Smoot; a barge belonging to the Gulf Dredging Company, and a barge belonging to the Columbia National Sand Dredging Company are at the shipyard for repairs. A number of men are also at work at the yard building a large dredge and three barges for the Potomac Dredging Company.

Cool Wave.

The weather continues cold and unseasonable. There were spits of snow in portions of the county this morning. The old tradition to the effect that April borrows ten days from March seems to have been more than fulfilled this year. The temperature during the past few days has been as low as that often prevailing in the middle of March.

Corporation Court.

[Judge L. C. Barley presiding.] Lucy C. Stuart vs. Albert Stuart, suit for distribution; final decree. Hattie E. King vs. Walter Scott; argued and submitted.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

Mrs. Nettie C. Pritchard has been appointed postmaster at Arlington, Alexandria county. The transfer service between this city and Shepherd's is again being operated by night and day crews. Andrew Jackson, colored, said to be 95 years old, died at his home near the Theological Seminary yesterday. Numbers of members of the Knights of Columbus came here today from Washington and visited points of interest. A marriage license was issued in Washington yesterday to Charles W. Hoffman, of Mitchell's, and Edna Kite, of Crooked Run. The entertainment at the Opera House on Tuesday night for the benefit of the Reliance Fire Company netted over one hundred dollars. A little daughter of Mr. Thomas Henderson fell on Prince street late yesterday evening and seriously cut her head against the curbstone. The remains of Miss Fannie M. Lynch, daughter of Alice and the late Thomas M. Lynch, were removed from the vault and interred in St. Mary's cemetery today. Alexandria Camp, Modern Woodmen of America, held a largely attended meeting last night at which two members were elected, one initiated and two applications for membership received. The steamer Dennis Simmons, from Williamston, N. C., to Smoot & Co., and H. K. Field & Co., has arrived. The three-mastered schooner Levin J. Marvel, from Newbern, N. C., with lumber for the same firms, has also arrived. A disordered stomach may cause no end of trouble. When the stomach fails to perform its functions the bowels become deranged, the liver and kidneys congested, causing numerous diseases, the most fatal of which are painless and therefore the more to be dreaded. The important thing is to restore the stomach and liver to a healthy condition, and for this purpose no better preparation can be used than Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. For sale by Richard Gibson.

The funeral service over the body of former Queen Isabella, in Paris yesterday afternoon, in the Palace of Castile, was attended by officials and diplomats. A large detachment of French troops paid military honors. As the procession crossed the Place de la Concorde a battery of artillery fired a salute of twenty-one guns. A royal train bore the body to Madrid.

At the annual dinner of the Cleveland, Ohio, Chamber of Commerce last night Secretary Taft made a speech. Concerning the policy of the United States government in the Philippines, Secretary Taft said that policy is, first, last, and always, the Philippines for the benefit of the Filipinos, but it involves, necessarily, the retention of the islands indefinitely until by education, material development, government, and the gradual extension of political control to the inhabitants under the guidance of the United States, they shall be sufficiently fitted for self-government so that independence will be a benefit and not an injury.
